DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claim 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Inoue et al (6,185,360).

Regarding claim 14, Inoue discloses a method for programming an electronic receiver comprising :

detecting whether a past record information representing whether an initial settings are programmed into the electronic receiver (previously reserved record information, column 15, lines 35-68)); and an alarm device (display device) for warning to then user that the initial settings are not programmed and providing the user input device and guide menu for programming the initial settings (initial set up for recording reservation, column 13, lines 35-68, column 15, lines 35-68).
